

Announcements – October 28, 2009

1. Attention Class of 2011: The cheesecakes will be here today. Cheesecake sellers, you will be called down to the receiving room today during 9th period to pick your orders. If you have an extra large order, please make plans to pick up your orders between 3:00 and 6:00 PM. All orders must be picked up today. SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: If it is raining today the pick up area will be at the entrance to the commons lobby. Please make your parents aware of this change if they are picking up your order.
2. A representative from Kings College and Cedar Crest College will be in the guidance office today. Any interested students should see Mrs. Groff for a pass.
3. This is a reminder to all students who go out for lunch. If you walk uptown toward the Grill Shop, you are not allowed to walk through the alley adjacent to the Orioles on Washington St. This is a school rule, and anyone who is found to be in that area may lose their privilege to go out at lunch time.
4. The Berks Career and Technology Center will be hosting an Open House on November 11 in Leesport and November 12 in Oley. If you are interested in seeing and hearing about what BCTC has to offer, please plan on attending this Open House. See your school counselor for more details.
5. Are you interested in participating in Science Olympiad this year? If so, be sure to go to our first meeting this year this Thursday after school in room 807. If you are interested but cannot attend, please see Mr. Knight in room 800 or Mrs. Senior in room 807.
6. Don't miss the STEALTH sponsored NRG Volleyball tournament on November 4th. All you need is 10 people, $10.00 per person and a registration form. Sign up now, team t-shirt colors are going fast. Sign up with Mrs. Petri or Mrs. Furman by Friday, October 30, 2009.
7. Attention all seniors. There is only one week to finish your senior fund raiser. 40% of total items sold will go off your final trip payment. SELL SELL SELL.
8. Attention Students: This is the last week to subscribe to your school newspaper The Cub: Bring in $1.00 and sign up with your homeroom teacher. You get 7 issues which include one teacher coupon pack each semester. After this week, the cost will be $2.00, so sign up now. Don't wait!
9. Attention all seniors. It is time to order items needed for graduation, which will be here before you know it. Next week, all seniors MUST order a cap and gown. Seniors may order announcements, etc. at that time also. All orders will be taken in the Spirit Lobby from 10:45-1:30. Checks should be made out to Student Services Company. Additional graduation information packets are available in the rack outside of room 720.
10. Hey sophomores, sell, sell, sell!! Your fundraiser is in full swing and the race is on to see who wins the $100. We need you all to try to sell at least 10 items. Ask your mom, dad, sister, uncle, best friend's girlfriend, and second cousins twice removed to order some yummy pizza or pretzels. Don't forget, teacher's like pizza and pretzels too. Also – Mrs. Burkert is still looking for class officer candidates. Come to room 105 to pick up an informational packet.
11. Senior Photo retakes will be held Thursday November 12th and 13th. The hours are from 9:30-12:00 and 12:45-2:00 in the Old Auditorium. Students can schedule their retakes at www.ouryear.com (school code 251) or by calling 1-800-OUR-YEAR
12. The Post Prom 2010 committee will hold a monthly Bake Sale in the School Cafeteria during lunches. For each student and or parent that donates an item they will receive one ticket for each baked item. Student/Parent must have a bake sale form attached to each item donated in order to get credit for their donation. For each student that volunteers their lunch time at the bake sale, they will receive one ticket towards post prom prizes for each time they volunteer. If you are volunteering or donating an item, contact Jodie Leyfert in homeroom 604. The first bake sale will be Thurs., Oct. 29.
