

Financial Aid Assistance Webinars – January 2022

Presented by PHEAA: Deep Dive Into Credit Related to Education Funding

For most families, borrowing for education is part of the equation and can be confusing as families look for the best options to fit their needs. Join Dan Wray and Linda Pacewicz of Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) for a 1 hour webinar to increase your financial literacy and knowledge on the process of credit, how to maintain or improve ratings and comparison points to help make informed and affordable education borrowing decisions.

Event Dates

- Tuesday, January 11th – Noon (ET)
- Thursday, January 20th – 6:30 PM (ET)

Presented by PHEAA: Learn about Education Loans — Which Loan is Right for Me?

As families receive their financial offer letters from schools and determine that education loans may be needed, they'll find that there are many options to consider – including loans from the Department of Education and private loan programs. Doing the research and knowing what to compare and consider will be important to overall education debt, keeping it affordable, and finding the right fit. Join Daniel Wray and Linda Pacewicz of PHEAA PA Forward in a one hour webinar review of the different options and details associated with education loans to assist in sorting out the information to make decisions that are right for you and your family.
