

A homework assistance program for Washington Elementary School at the Bally Community Center has begun!

This “Program for After-School Students” (PASS) is open to all students in grades K through 5 and will meet every Wednesday in conjunction with the school calendar. The program concludes at 5:15 when parents can pick up their students at the Center. Registration of students can be done through the web site, BallyCommunityCenter.org or request information by email at

<http://www.ballycommunitycenter.org/PASS.html>