

STATEMENT OF BOYERTOWN AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT
REGARDING ACLU FILING OF MOTION TO INTERVENE

April 3, 2017

Boyertown Area School District Superintendent Dr. Richard Faidley today issued the following statement:

“We respect and welcome today’s filing of a motion to intervene, in support of the District, in Federal court by the ACLU on behalf of a senior in the BASD and the Pennsylvania Youth Congress. Consistent with the district’s view that relevant information about this important matter should be shared with our community, a copy of the filing has been posted to our website (ACLU Motion to Intervene: Doe vs. BASD).”
