Regardless of the survey you select, you will arrive at a screen that looks like this. Select See previous responses.

A screenshot of a Google Forms page. At the top is a header image showing a desk with books, glasses, and pens. Below the image, the title "Boyertown Area School District - Administrator Survey January 2025" is displayed in bold. The main text states: "The form Boyertown Area School District - Administrator Survey January 2025 is no longer accepting responses. Try contacting the owner of the form if you think this is a mistake." Below this text is a blue hyperlink that says "See previous responses". A large yellow arrow with a black outline points to the left, highlighting the "See previous responses" link. At the bottom of the form, there is a footer that reads: "This form was created inside of Boyertown Area School District. Does this form look suspicious? Report". The Google Forms logo is at the very bottom.

This will bring you to that survey's results.

Here, you can hover over the results for additional information. You can scroll left to right and back again using the scroll bar at the bottom of the colored bar graphs.

The same instructions apply to all survey results and both results in color and in black and white.
